Vision / Mission*Vision :

Shri HariharPratishthan was born for a noble intention to bridge the gap in higher education within economically and socially disadvantaged regions. Our rural-based working youths faced obstacles that led them to abandon education due to personal, financial, or family reasons. With a deep-seated vision, our founders envisioned establishing an institution in Latur to: Empower socially and economically deprived working students, encouraging them to pursue higher education and achieve academic excellence through night college attendance.

Mission :

Our mission is to foster the concept of "Learning while earning," empowering working youth with quality commerce education. We are dedicated to providing a seamless learning opportunity for those who aspire to pursue and continue their education in commerce while balancing their earning commitments.
